From 26th Jan. 1950 to 10th March 1950.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY
1 DEC. 1949
GOVT. OF MYSORE

(Sponsored by the Delhi Provincial Congress Committee)

THE AKHIL BHARATIYA UDYOG PRADARSHANI
DELHI.

(From 26th January 1950 to 10th March, 1950)

IMPORTANT RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1 The Opening ceremony of the Akhil Bharatiya Udyog Pradarshani, Delhi will be held on the 26th of January 1950. The Rememberance Day of Purna Swaraj and will continue for six weeks upto the 10th of March 1950.

2 Only the Cottage industries and Swadeshi goods will be allowed to sell, demonstrate or keep in the Exhibition.

3. Hand-made or small machine-made articles individually manufactured will be considered as Cottage Industries goods.

4. In case some middle man enjoys the profits on articles mentioned in Rule 3, no such goods will come under the category of Cottage Industries.

5. Khadi certified by the All India Spinners Association or individually manufactured will only be considered as pure.

6. Articles mentioned in Rule No. 3 and 5 will only be allowed to enter in the Khadi and Cottage Industries section of the Exhibition.

7. Goods manufactured in present day India with indigenous raw or basic material, Indian labour and capital will be considered as Swadeshi.

8. In case of some goods that cannot be manufactured in India without the help of foreign experts or without using foreign raw or basic material the Rule No. 7 may be slackened or even waived, but this exception will not be allowed to the Textile Indusries.

9 An Indian Company with its investment of only 15% foreign capital may be considered as Swadeshi.

10. In case of a doubt or dispute regarding the indigenousness of an article, the stall holder or the demonstrator must prove that his article is Swadeshi. So he must come fully equipped with necessary and documentary evidence to prove or convince the General Secretary or any person only authorised by him.

11. In special reference to Indian Arts and Crafts of rare nature the rule for Swadeshi may be slackened and such semi-swadeshi articles may be allowed only to exhibit, but not to sell.

12. The naturalised and domiciled people of India and Refugees imigrated from Pakistan since the partition of the Central Interim Government by the Congress will be considered as Indians.

13. Every applicant for a stall or space must submit the following together with the application :—

(a) The fixed stall number of the exhibition plan together with at least three alternative choice.

(b) The area of the space mentioning its length and breadth together with some alternate sites or numbers as the case may be.

(c) The aim of applying for stall or space.

(d) The advance payment of the full amount of rent for stall or space.

(e) The solemn declaration in writing by the applicant that he would abide by the rules and decision of the General Secretary, the Exhibition Committee or any person duly authorised by them.

14. If however the applied stall or space is not possible to be allotted to the applicant he will be allotted other one instead and the applicant is expected to accept the same.

15. A person can apply for any number of stalls but he must mention in the application the minimum numbers he requires.

16. Persons who fail to occupy the stall or space allotted to them a day before the opening ceremony of the exhibition will forfeit the rent paid to the exhibition committee, and the committee shall be entitled to allot the same to others.

17. No stall-holder or exhibitor possesses any right to sublet or transfer in whole any part of a stall or space allotted to him.

18. A stall-holder must display duly the articles for which he applied. Deviation to this rule may be permitted by the General Secretary, if a new application is made before-hand describing the causes for such change.

19. Each stall will be generally 12′×9′ in measurement and will be supplied with one electric light of 60 watts till midnight. A security of Rs. 3/- per bulb must be deposited with the Exhibition Committee to be refunded to the owner after safe delivery of the bulb.

20. No light will be provided during the day time, but the rent shall remain the same.

21. Swadeshi Emporium:—

(a) Those business men who are unable to participate directly in the exhibition may enjoy its fruits by sending their articles to the Exhibition Committee to be placed in the Swadeshi Emporium for sale.

(b) The Committee will charge 12½% commission on sale-price.

(c) Space will be allowed on rent at the rate to be fixed by the management on application.

(d) An advance of Rs. 20/- should be sent to the Committee for cartage, octroi fees, coolie expenses etc.

(e) All such goods must be sent freight paid at owner's risk with detail prices of each article.

(f) Unsold goods will be sent back at owner's risk.

22. Terms for allotment of space, plot or stall for amusement, special demonstrations, hotels, Panwalas, Chatwalas. Confectioners etc. may be had on application according to requirements.

23. Stall holders or demonstators must make good all loss or damage caused by them or by their agents or servants, and must pay up in full all their dues and other liabilities before finally removing their goods from the exhibition ground, otherwise the General Secretary shall have the right to auction the goods worth equal to the unpaid dues and thus settle the final account with the party.

24. All stall-holders specially those selling or displaying articles for food and drink must strictly observe the rules of cleanliness and sanitation. The latter must use suitable cases and covers to protect food-stuffs from dirt, dust, flies, insects and other harmful germs and dirty things.

25. The General Secretary can remove, destory or throw away any kind of food-stuffs as he may consider harmful or dangerous to health in any manner.

26 Hotelwalas, Chatwalas, Halwais and Panwalas must keep suitable dust-bins to be used for throwing away refuse, spitting, washing etc., and stall-holders must keep an eye upon the customers that no refuse is scattered arround their shops.

27 Stall-holders mentioned in Rule No. 26 must hang boards written in BOLD TYPE IN HINDI AND URDU characters stating that the food stuffs sold in their shops are made of PURE GHEE, VEGETABLE OIL, MUSTARD OIL ETC.

28. Any infringment regarding the rules of cleanliness and sanitation as mentioned in these Rules shall be liable to a penalty of Rs. 2/- each time. In case of repeated disobedience and breach of rules the stall will be taken back by the Exhibition Committee without refunding the rent to the owner.

29. The General Secretary may require any seller of food-stuffs to submit free samples for the purpose of examination.

30. Stall-holders, demonstrators and exhibitors will not be permitted to obstruct the views of others by hanging boards and display of goods or such other actions. Likewise they are strictly prohibited to keep their chairs, benches, tables, bamboos and such other things which may obstruct the passage for other stall-holders and the general public.
